Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus told St. Faustina that this Feast of Mercy would be a very special day when all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. The Sunday after Easter is now called the Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Catholic Church

*About the feast-day "Divine Mercy Sunday": Jesus said, "Tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open.
I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet...Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." (Diary 699)*

Congratulations to our very first catechuman from the RCIA Adapted for Children, Kathy Delph. Also to our RCIA candidates, Monte Mansfield and Johnie Muller. On Easter Vigil, March 22, they came into full communion with the Catholic Church. We welcome you!
